

Instructions for Use:

This Amendment template is used to document substantive revisions to the terms and conditions of an active fully executed agreement. Minor revisions do not require an Amendment, and can be documented with a memorandum or email exchange between the two parties.

- 1. Review the entire agreement and make note of each section requiring revision. Proceed by listing each revision in the Amendment.
- 2. Your file documentation should contain information regarding the reason for the Amendment. Example: If you are amending an Agreement to extend the Term, document why more time is needed.
- 3. Once you have completed the requested information, please delete the highlighted instructions and blue-shaded fields before printing the Amendment.
- 4. When you are ready to submit the Amendment for review and approval, please refer to the "Procedure for Submitting Business Contracts" at:
