Terms and Conditions

1. Contractor agrees and acknowledges that this agreement does not create an employment relationship with the studio, nor does it make the Contractor a partner, co-adventurer or agent of the Studio for any purpose.
2. Contractor assigns the copyright in all works created as a result of, or ancillary to, this agreement to the Studio. Contractor also agrees that it shall not retain any film, digital media, photographic prints or electronic files related to the performance of this contract unless it obtains written permission from Studio.
3. Contractor acknowledges that during his or her completion of the contract, that Contractor may be exposed to certain confidential information, including, but not limited to, customer and prospect lists. Contractor agrees not to disclose any of this information to any third party, nor shall Contractor use such knowledge to its own advantage either during the term of this agreement or any time thereafter.
4. In the event that an assignment is cancelled, the Studio will provide notice to the Contractor as soon as practicable.
5. Contractor certifies that he or she has business liability insurance and malpractice insurance (or its equivalent) in an amount sufficient to cover any foreseeable damages related to its performance of this contract.
6. Contractor further agrees to defend studio in any action arising out of law or equity and to fully indemnify the Studio for damages related to Contractor's performance of this contract. Contractor acknowledges that in addition to regular damages related to a failure to perform this contract, Contractor may also be liable to Studio for consequential damages such as lost business opportunities.
6. Contractor may not assign or delegate any of its rights or responsibilities under this agreement to a third party.
7. Waiver of any term of this agreement by either of the parties shall not be considered a continuing waiver.
8. Any modification of this agreement must be in writing and signed by both parties.
9. This agreement constitutes the full agreement of the parties.
10. If any provision of this agreement is declared invalid, then the remainder of the agreement will remain in force and intact.
