To Whom It May Concern:

I am very pleased to recommend Abigail Reynolds for admission into your BA program in Creative Writing. Abigail has applied herself to her coursework and will graduate with honors from Sacred Heart Secondary School in May 2011. She is also highly active in extracurricular activities and is a member of the drama club, school council and volleyball team.

Abigail's personal characteristics have proven promising for living abroad. She is outgoing, adventurous, positive, friendly and energetic. Her previous experience traveling in the United States will serve her well in minimizing cultural adaptation, allowing her to focus on her studies.

I have full confidence that Abigail will excel in a bachelor's program in Creative Writing at the University of Washington.
