

Elm Way Elementary School

Newsletter Date
Volume 1, Issue 1

Principal Name Here
Vice-Principal Name Here

Principal's News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Contents

Principal's News	1
Dear Parents	1
Upcoming Events	1
Kindergarten News	2
First Grade News	2
Second Grade News	2
Third Grade News	2
Fourth Grade News	3
Fifth Grade News	3
Sixth Grade News	3
New Students	4
New Staff	4

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news. Share news

Dear Parents

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news. Also share news for specific grade levels, and tell parents about upcoming events, new faculty, and school policies.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as any of school district news. Also share news for specific grade levels, and tell parents about upcoming events, new faculty, and school policies.

Upcoming Events

- ◆ Event One
- ◆ Event Two
- ◆ Event Three

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Kindergarten News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What

First Grade News
important messages do you want to send parents and families?

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to determine how frequently you develop a strong relationship with publish the newsletter and its length.

First, choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the school district news newsletter's theme. What

Second Grade News
important messages do you want to send parents and families?

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

First, choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What

Third Grade News
important messages do you want to send parents and families?

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

First, choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Fourth Grade News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What

Fifth Grade News
important messages do you want to send parents and families?

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents. Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What

Sixth Grade News
important messages do you want to send parents and families?

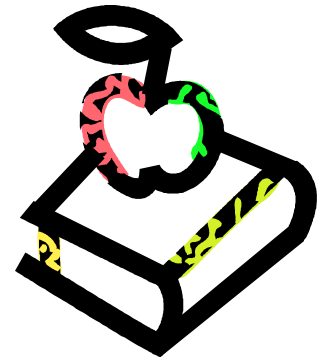

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents. Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

