

Sample Farewell Messages to Manager

- I just cannot believe that I am writing a farewell message to you as even the last week we were having a heated discussion regarding the finance book of the year. But as it cannot be erased the very fact I have to accept that you will no longer be a part of the office, but remembering the quality time we spent as colleagues will be special to me.
- It's hard for me to bid you a farewell as I cannot imagine that my manager would not be around me from the next week. Nevertheless, life goes on, so I wish you all the very best and I promise that I will always be there to help you and at your need any time because more than a manager you were a friend to me.
- Our relation was not merely of manager and sub-ordinate but more of two brothers. As you will leave, I will feel your absence every second. You have guided me all through the sensitive and tough turns of life, you were more like a father figure to me; but as they say that time and tide waits for none, so may be I will also be able to cope with your absence. So here is me bidding you good bye and wish you all the very best and luck for your life ahead.
