

Happy Easter!

I had so much fun hiding the eggs around your house. Do you think you'll find them all? You're so clever, I bet you will!

I'm sorry you didn't get to see me, but I make my deliveries very early in the morning. Also, the Easter Bunny Rules say that kids aren't allowed to watch me.

I hope you like your Easter basket. I filled it full of candy and little toys especially for you. It's so fun to pick out things for good little boys and girls!

Please have a wonderful Easter Sunday with your family. I'll be back again next year, hopping down the bunny trail to your house.

Love,
The Easter Bunny
